

A scenic view of a lake with dense green and yellow foliage reflected in the water. The trees are lush and vibrant, with some leaves turning a bright yellow, suggesting early autumn. The water is calm, creating a clear reflection of the trees above. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and natural.

It is widely known that our world is often compared with a mirror. Could a parrot say something smart about it? Why not, if it grew up in a smart forest...

*So listen to the story, my dear friend!
I want to tell you that our world is a great mirror.*

This mirror reflects, or it is better to say returns, all our deeds, thoughts and feelings.

*And it doesn't matter in what
year we were
born,*

...what our gender is, or anything else.

*The mirror law is universal.
It works with everyone slowly and reliably, like a good old mill.*

*There's no point trying to hide from
it. It's easier to follow it.*

Now let us
talk about
how it works.
For instance,
if we steal
something
during our
life,

...later, someone else will definitely steal from us.

*If we take something
away from
others...*

*...we will
swell from greed.*

And if sometimes we like to “fight” others...

...we'll be guaranteed to come across a superior opponent. Similar rule works everywhere and in everything.

Of course, we can ignore this law of the mirror, or turn our back to it.

Or even try to build our own laws on this Earth.

*But the end
of such buildings
is always the same...*

*Human life is a long complex route.
However, it consists of many

And if we choose the right direction at every part,

...reflection in our mirror will definitely please us.

But if we deliberately choose dangerous and wrong ways,

...the end of it should not be a surprise to us.

Surprisingly, when we go through life correctly and with due diligence,

...we begin to increasingly choose between the beautiful and the magnificent, and not just the good and the bad.

If we learn this simple law, we can fly quickly and beautifully in our lives.

Besides, we can waste our time, simply thinking about it endlessly.

Or we can pretend
that we didn't understand
anything.

However, our success will depend only on our real efforts.

*That's how the mirror works
- it reflects everything without any deviations.*

*That's the whole story, my dear friend. I wish you success on your way,
and always be happy...*

... admiring the most beautiful reflections!
